

2016, call for applications
deadline May 31, 2016

Jacques Delors' Scholarship

PhD European and international studies

Post-doc researchers, the Jacques Delors Institute and his partners offer you an opportunity to study 10 years of Jacques Delors personal archives when he was President of the European Commission.

> An archives collection witness of a rich period of the european history

The archives collection Jacques Delors - Presidency of the European Commission (1984-1994) reflects the evolutions of the European construction (Single European Act, Single Market, Treaty of Maastricht, German reunification, etc.).

> The benefit from a network of academic organisations

The Jacques Delors' archives can be consulted in famous academic partners of five european countries. Their experience and expertise represent key assets to carry out your research project.

> The guarantee of visibility

At the end of your research work, the Jacques Delors Institute and his partners organise an annual event which allow you to present your research conclusions. Your work will be published on our website and broadcasted throught our network.

To learn more, go on:

www.delorsinstitute.eu

heading News and Archives from Jacques Delors

European University Institute

HISTORICAL ARCHIVES
OF THE EUROPEAN UNION

SciencesPo
CENTRE D'HISTOIRE

College of Europe
Collège d'Europe

Fondation
Jean Monnet
pour l'Europe