

CFDT (FORMERLY CFTC)

Jacques Delors joined in 1945. He was co-responsible of the Research and Economic Action Office (BRAEC), and actively campaigned with the "Reconstruction" group, breaking ground for debates which participated in the CFTC, then known as the CFDT.

CONTENT

Jacques DELORS photographs (1982-1992)

About 30 photographs together with CFDT personalities.

"Reconstruction" group

Bulletins des Groupes Reconstruction (1948-1953),

Cahiers des Groupes Reconstruction (1954-1957),

Cahiers Reconstruction (1958-1974)

Reuves de recherche de la "Minorité" favorable à une évolution de la CFTC en CFDT

BRAEC

Studies for the Bureau de Recherches d'Analyses et d'Etudes Coordonnées, then Bureau de Recherches et d'Action Economique

CFDT

Documentation, CFDT Publications

The CFDT Magazine, « La formation professionnelle » (n°22-23, 1er août 1999)

The CFDT Magazine, « L'Europe, quel avenir et quelles voies ? » (n°82, 1er avril 2007)

Le Fil Bleu (l'Union Confédérale des Retraités, UCR publications)

Interview with Jacques DELORS: A Militant Life (n°200, 1st October 2008)

CONTACTS & CONSULTATION TERMS

From Monday to Friday, from 9 :00 am to 6 :00 pm (closing between 12 :15 and 13 :15)

Service des Archives CFDT, 47-49, avenue Simon Bolivar, 75950 Paris cedex 19

Contact : archives@cfdt.fr ; +33 (0)1 56 41 50 13/14