

PRESS RELEASE

Jacques Delors chairs Notre Europe's annual European Steering Committee Meeting*

On Saturday, November 13, Notre Europe's Steering Committee met at the Collège des Bernardins in Paris. The meeting, chaired by Jacques Delors, former of the European Commission and founding President of the think tank Notre Europe was attended by current President Tommaso Padoa-Schoppa and more than forty other participants.

Notre Europe's Committee brings together each year high-level European personalities in order to put forward avenues to be explored regarding the future construction of the Union. This year the debates focused on:

- The challenges and promises of economic and monetary union
- Germany's European Destiny: true or false controversy?
- New Institutions: The Lisbon Treaty put to the test

Following the debates on Saturday, November 13th at 17h00, all participating members signed a joint declaration entitled "A NEW RESOURCE OF THE EUROPEAN BUDGET". This documents reflects the opinion of the Committee regarding current European events.
