

CYCLE OF DEBATES

CYCLE OF DEBATES ON EUROPE AND THE EUROPEAN UNION

23 APRIL – 21 MAY 2014

Institut français à Budapest, 17 rue Fő Vile, 1011 Budapest

Ahead of the European elections of 25 May, the French Institute of Budapest, in partnership with Notre Europe - Jacques Delors Institute, Gide Loyrette Nouel, Central European University and NOL.hu, organise a series of 4 meetings / debates on European issues in French and Hungarian. The European elections of 25th May 2014 coincide with the 10th anniversary of the entry of Hungary into the European Union.

The opportunity is ideal to question the European integration process from Budapest, particularly with regard to Central and Eastern Europe, former Soviet bloc countries. The debates will take into account the assessment of the past ten years and will also identify a vision of what the EU could or should become in the next years. The EU has been through one of the most serious crises in its history and the elections next May could change the balance of power within the European Parliament. The construction of an European citizenship is still under construction, threatened by nationalist outbreaks and identity politics.

To address these questions, without prejudice to the events organised by the Hungarian authorities to commemorate the 10th anniversary of accession to the EU, we have chosen to discuss with experts and French and Hungarian politicians. They are gathered around a theme per session to address all the questions.
