

JACQUES DELORS THOUGHTS ON EUROPE

Maison de l'Europe, 35-37, rue des Francs-Bourgeois 75004 Paris

24 May 2016 – 6.30 > 8.00 pm

"L'homme qui ne voulait pas être roi, Conversations avec Jacques Delors" (Grasset, 2016) speaks about a country, a party, a man, and a human construction, the EU. Jacques Delors opened his archives to Cécile AMAR. The journalist comes back on the different steps of the European construction, on the vision of the former European Commission President, and his analysis of Europe's situation.

An event organised in cooperation between the Jacques Delors Institute and the Maison de l'Europe with the participation of Cécile AMAR, journalist at the Journal du Dimanche ; Yves BERTONCINI, Director of the Jacques Delors Institute, Catherine LALUMIÈRE, president of the Maison de l'Europe de Paris and Nicolas LERON, president of EuroCité and associate research fellow at the European Study Centre at Sciences Po Paris.

The book will be available for selling and signing.
