with Notre Europe*

Become an Associate Member

Notre Europe welcomes a small number of members who will gain starting 1 January 2009 privileged access to its expertise and network of European decision-makers.

Notre Europe is therefore pleased to invite you to become an Associate Member.

Notre Europe

- › An independant think tank developing analyses and European policy proposals which aims to support and grow the vision of Jacques Delors, its founding President.
- › A broad-based think tank with strong competence in several strategic areas vital to the European Union's future, including: institutional development and the future of the European Union, European democracy, sectoral policies (including economic and social policy, energy policy, the common agricultural policy) and the role of the EU in world governance.
- › A think tank whose analyses lie between the short-term focus of the news agenda and the long-term perspective of in-depth academic work. Notre Europe's ambition is to make innovative proposals that draw decision-makers' attention.
- › A think tank with ambitions to go beyond the inner circles, to reach out to citizens and contribute to the building of a European public space.
- › A European think tank based in France. Notre Europe employs a multinational team and works in collaboration with numerous networks throughout Europe.
