As Europe begins to think in earnest about life after the UK, the future of the EU remains very much obscured. In the week leading up to the Bratislava summit, a number of think tanks have outlined what they think the historic meeting will bring, continuing with Yves Bertoncini.

Yves Bertoncini is director of the Jacques Delors Institute.

Yves Bertoncini, dyrektor think tanku Instytut Jacques'a Delors "Nasza Europa", powiedział PAP, że okaże się czy prezydentura Trumpa to katastrofa, czy też nie, czy można porównać ją z Brexitem, który przyniósł nieporządek i niepewność.

"Senior sources" in Brussels tell the paper that France is "isolated" in its opposition to any accommodation with Britain, as other states are open to a special deal in their own commercial and political interests.

EU analyst Yves Bertoncini agrees, predicting "Britain had a special status within the EU, it will still have one outside it".

The Jacques Delors Institute is the European think tank founded by Jacques Delors in 1996 (under the name Notre Europe), at the end of his presidency of the European Commission. Our aim is to produce analyses and proposals targeting European decision-makers and a wider audience, and to contribute to the debate on the European Union.

We publish numerous papers (Tribunes, Policy Papers, Studies & Reports, Syntheses), sounds and videos, organise and take part in seminars and conferences throughout Europe, and make appearances in the European media via our presidents, directors and teams.

Our work is inspired by the action and ideas of Jacques Delors and guided by the general principles set out in the Charter adopted by our Board of Directors. It is structured around three main axes: “European Union and citizens”—covering political, institutional and civic issues; “Competition, cooperation, solidarity”—dealing with economic, social and regional issues; “European external actions”—research with an international dimension.

The President of the Jacques Delors Institute is Enrico Letta, Dean of the Paris School of International Affairs (PSIA) at Sciences Po, and the former Prime Minister of Italy, who succeeded António Vitorino, Tommaso Padoa-Schioppa, Pascal Lamy, and Jacques Delors. Our director, Yves Bertoncini, leads an international team of around 15 members, who work in close coordination with the members of the Berlin office, led by Henrik Enderlein.

The governing bodies of the Jacques Delors Institute comprise high-profile European figures from diverse backgrounds. Our Board of Trustees takes care of our moral and financial interests. Our Board of Directors is responsible for the management and direction of our works. Our European Steering Committee meets to debate issues of fundamental importance for the future of the EU.

All publications are available free of charge, in French and English, on our website and through the social networks. The Jacques Delors Institute is wholly independent of any political influence or economic interests.
